Memorandum of Intent

Our Intent

This Memorandum provides guidance to the guardian of our minor children with respect to child rearing practices, important choices and our wishes regarding our children's care. This memorandum is to be considered binding to the extent possible. However, we recognize that there may be circumstances that we cannot anticipate, so we request that all parties concerned act in accordance with our intent as set forth in this memorandum. We appoint the guardian of our minor children to carry out our wishes and desires as expressed herein. We direct our trustee to support our guardian to the greatest extent possible in honoring these instructions.

Our estate plan uses a Revocable Living Trust, Pour-over Will, and other documents. Should this memorandum conflict with any provision of our primary estate planning documents, i.e. our Revocable Living Trust or Pour-over Will, our Revocable Living Trust shall take precedence followed by our Pour-over Will.

Immediate Family and Friends

We are providing the following information so that our family, friends and organizations with whom our family is affiliated may be notified of our children's new guardianship and invited to participate in our children's lives.

Discipline

It is important to us that our child be disciplined in a manner consistent with our values and child-rearing practices.

We believe that a child should not be punished for developmentally appropriate behaviors. Rather, we prefer that our guardian use distraction, redirection, negotiation or another non-punitive method of modifying our child's behavior so that the guardian and our child can live together in peace.

The following methods of discipline are totally unacceptable to us, and if our guardian feels he or she requires these methods, we wish that person to decline to accept guardianship of our children.

The following methods of discipline are those we use most frequently because we believe they are appropriate and effective:

Parenting Resources

The following resources (books, organizations, etc) have been helpful to me as we have developed our parenting philosophy. We encourage our child's guardian to consider these resources for himself or herself:
